Highlights

- Sealed road – perfect to travel in a 2WD camper
- Time your visit from May to September to see the Southern Right Whales playing in the Great Australian Bight
- You'll be amazed how close you can get to the Bunda Cliffs, particularly on the South Australian side of the Nullarbor Plain
- If you have a love of seafood, travel the Eyre Peninsular, or at a minimum stop in Ceduna for some fresh oysters (add an extra 3 days min for the Eyre Peninsular)
- Plenty of opportunity to see wildlife like kangaroos, camels, wombats and emus
- Western Australia is world renowned for having one of the most spectacular displays of wildflowers in the world. Time your visit from around late August to November to see the brilliant blaze of colour
  - Stop in at local information centres for a brochure on the many 'wildflower' touring routes in South Western Australia (including inland)
- There are some freedom camps (free or low cost camping) as well as a commercial camps crossing the Nullarbor, and a number around the Eyre Peninsular and in WA.
- Grab a Holiday National Park Pass in WA to save money on entry fees
  - Check out our highlights for the area SW of Perth for more ideas
